

THE ASYLUM INVESTIGATION

The Asylum investigation now being conducted at Reno is being watched with interest by the whole State. In every county in Nevada are people who have unfortunate relatives under the charge of Dr. Bishop and these people are suffering the keenest anxiety in connection with the affair. For the sake of these people the APPEAL hopes that Dr. Bishop will be enabled successfully to refute all the charges brought against him.

Again if the charges are true it is as much to the interest of everybody that they should be proven conclusively and made an end of. If the charges are sustained Bishop should be summarily dismissed and punished. If he can disprove them beyond a doubt and show that they were inspired by malice and revenge, the men instrumental in blackening his character should be dealt with as severely as the law allows.

A physician's professional reputation is that which enables him to earn a livelihood, while his private reputation enables him to maintain a standing among his fellow citizens. When these are all foully blackened he is entitled under the law to ample damages and reparation. The APPEAL has no opinion to express, regarding the truth or falsity of these charges. It declined to print the charges and it will decline to print the testimony until both sides can have a fair hearing. Its only hope is that the truth will come out and that the hearing will be full and impartial.

PACIFIC COAST ITEMS.

—C. H. Potter, a confidence man, is in jail at Petaluma, with three charges against him.

—Fall River, Shasta county, is in earnest about a proposed railroad from Redding to that place.

—A paper mill is to be erected at Las Camas, Or., to take the place of the one destroyed by fire.

—The Salvation Army at Los Angeles started out on the street the other night with a bugle and tambourine, but were driven back to their quarters by the Sheriff.

—The Concrete Works at National City were burned Wednesday night. The works were owned by the California Southern Railroad Company. The fire was caused by an explosion in a retort.

—Two young men of North Bloomfield, Nevada county, suspected of keeping the Anti-Debris Association's agents posted concerning the movements of claim-owners in that vicinity, were notified by a committee to change their place of residence.

—Mrs. Rozelli, who threw vitriol in the face of John Petrie at Los Angeles Tuesday, is between thirty and forty years old, well built but not handsome, and has a notably chilly expression. Petrie's railroad fellow-employees are subscribing to a fund to prosecute her.

—The steamship Idaho has arrived at Port Townsend from Alaskan ports, with the following advices: Rich placer discoveries are reported on the Forty and Eighty-mile creeks, tributaries of Stewart river, averaging from $16 to $25 per man each day. The gold is very coarse.

—Resolutions of sympathy with, and friendship for the Carver boys, and pledging to support them "through all the harassing denunciations they have heaped upon them from people who do not know them," have been drawn up and signed by a large number of residents of Kern and Tulare counties. Jeff and Alex Carver are, it will be remembered, the officers who shot Siebert in mistake for Peter Olsen.

Taking It Out in Trade. PL Brakeman—But don't you think that a dollar and a half a day is rather small pay for eighteen hours' work on top of a freight car?

Superintendent—But you forget that we charge nothing for traveling. Let's see; you ride something like 200 miles daily, and it doesn't cost you a cent.—Boston Transcript.
